

In a little while from now
If I'm not feeling any less sour
I promise myself to treat myself
And visit a nearby tower

To think that only yesterday
I was cheerful, bright and gay
Looking forward to - who wouldn't do
The role I was about to play?

And climbing to the top and show my anger off
In an effort to make it clear to who - ever
What it's like when you're shattered
Left standing in the lurch at a church
Where people saying: "My God, that's tough"
"She stood him up"
"No point in us remaining"
"We may as well go home"
As I did on my own
Alone again, naturally

But as if to knock me down Reality came around
And without so much as a mere touch
Cut me into little pieces
Leaving me to doubt
Talk about God in His mercy
Who if He really does exist
Why did He desert me?
In my hour of need
I truly am indeed
Alone again, naturally

*It seems to me that there are more hearts
Broken in the world that can't be mended
Left unattended
What do we do? What do we do?
(tussenspel)*

Looking back over the year
Whatever else appeared
I remember I cried when my - father died
Never wishing to hide my tears
And at eighty-two years old
My mother deep in her soul
Could not understand why the only man
She had ever loved had been taken
Leaving her to start with a heart so badly broken
Despite encouragement from me
No words were ever spoken
When he passed away
I cried and cried all day
Alone again, naturally
Alone again, naturally
